

CLASC Bulletin 5-14-15

1. Happy Hour tomorrow, Friday, May 15 – Marinas Mexican Restaurant

Yes, it's still on – not flooded out! With luck we'll be on the patio, otherwise they'll set up the back room for us.

3500 W Main, (FM 518, west of I-45), League City. See the map in the Liftline.

2. Still looking for Trip Leaders and Assistants. If you are thinking about it, please give Gayle (gbrown.clasc@yahoo.com) or Keith (Keith.d.zimmerman@nasa.gov) a shout. The TL/ATL application is in this month's Liftline. We will be reviewing applications at this Sunday's Board meeting.

NOTE : the 2016 Summer Expedition Trip to Bike/Cruise the Danube is filling up fast. Get your deposit in quickly to claim one of the remaining spots!

3. Other stuff going on this weekend!

6th Annual Red, White & Bayou. Dickinson is holding their annual crawfish festival this Saturday, May 16, 11 am – 11 pm. Web site: <http://www.redwhiteandbayou.com/>

Nice venue; HW 517 is barricaded for the festival at HW 3. Live music all day, Kevin Fowler is headlining. If you don't like crawfish, there are barbeque and other booths. Parking and bussing is available.

Tickets are $5 before Saturday, May 16 at 7:00, or $10 after (for the headline bands).

Free admission to all active duty military personnel!

Children 12 and under are free. Children's Activity Wristband is $15

Ken Stuchly has volunteered to let folks park at his house, only a few blocks from the festival, and even provide drop off service at the entrance! Vlee23@comcast.net

Please keep an eye on the sky and an ear on the weather news. Looks like there's more to come! Be safe!
